Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Once my on-line application is submitted, can I call the SFIC office to inquire about the status of my application?

A: No. All applications submitted will remain under review until final determinations are made. SFIC will not provide any other information before a finalized award decision has been announced. All correspondence regarding your application will be emailed to you before the end of June, 2018.

Q: Will you notify me if my on-line application is incomplete or missing information?

A: Yes. SFIC will email you, up until April 30, 2018, if you are missing any required documentation. Any information received after April 30, 2018 will be past the deadline and will not be eligible for consideration.

Q: If my family is awarded, how is the payment made?

A: If your family has been awarded a scholarship, payments will be made directly to your child(ren's) respective school in the form of two installments: 50% of the award will be paid in February for the first half of the school year and the remaining 50% will be paid in June for the second half of the school year.

Q: If my child is currently receiving a scholarship, do I have to reapply for the following school year(s)?

A: Yes. Families must apply for the SFIC scholarships every year, regardless of whether they are currently receiving or have been past recipients of an award. Families must also supply the most current financial documentation with their application.

Q: What are the requirements needed to be considered for your scholarship?

A: Eligibility is based upon the total family household income. Your child must be enrolled or planning to attend a Catholic school in the Archdiocese of Newark in grades Kindergarten to 12th and you must meet the financial requirements established by SFIC.

Q: Do I have to be living in the same town as the school my child attends to be eligible to apply?

A: No. Your child must be attending or enrolled to attend a Newark Archdiocesan school, however, you do not have to live in the same town as the school. For a complete list of schools, please visit: www.rcan.org.

Q: Can I receive more than one scholarship from The Scholarship Fund for Inner-City Children?

A: No. Only one scholarship per student is permitted. Students in grades K-8 receiving tuition assistance from The Children's Scholarship Fund (CSF) program are not eligible for The Scholarship Fund for Inner-City Children Scholarship (SFIC).
